Syngenta is a world-leading agribusiness committed to the sustainable management of both crops and turf, through innovative research and technology. We are a leader in plant protection and rank third in the high-value commercial seeds market – our sales in 2005 were US$8.1 billion. This is your chance to join a team of more than 19,000 people in over 90 countries, all committed to helping farmers feed the world today and tomorrow. Come and help us grow.

How will you make our turf grow?

Technical Manager – Turf (UK and Ireland)
Circa £40k · Whittlesford

Our new UK Turf business aims to provide Turf Managers with a range of state-of-the-art, environmentally sound products and technologies. We see this as a major growth area, which is why we are looking for someone with extensive knowledge of the agronomy of fine turf to underpin our expansion.

You will be involved in the development of our business strategy as well as having direct responsibility for the technical development and launch of our product portfolio. As well as forging close relationships with key industry influencers and end users you will build on new innovations within the market and develop a global contact network within Syngenta.

After five years in a specialist distributor, independent turf advisory organisation or as a top level Course Manager, you will have in-depth technical knowledge of the use of crop protection products and fine turf agronomy. You will also bring team working, project management and communication skills, a strong network of industry contacts, a keen analytical prowess as well as an understanding of the commercial environment.

In return you can look forward to real autonomy and excellent prospects as you play a key role in building this exciting new area of the business. You will also receive our excellent package of benefits.

To apply, please send a full CV to: HR Central Support, Syngenta, Jealott's Hill International Research Centre, Bracknell, Berkshire RG42 6EY, quoting ref: WHMIT/3 or email: uk.recruitment@syngenta.com

Closing date: 11th July 2006. Interviews to be held week commencing 31st July 2006.
