

Harrogate week

The ultimate exhibition

BIGGA's Quarter Century is a reason to celebrate, writes Scott MacCallum

Celebrating 25 years of BIGGA

Harrogate Week is always a special occasion for all those who attend, but Harrogate Week 2012 will be particularly so, as it not only celebrates the 25th anniversary of BIGGA itself, but also 100 years since the first surviving recorded minutes of BIGGA's oldest ancestor – the very first greenkeeping Association.

Both events will be recognised during the week with a Celebration Evening to mark BIGGA's Silver Jubilee and an exhibition in the Halls to commemorate the centenary of greenkeeping Associations.

nary of greenkeeping Associations.

The rate of change since 1987, never mind 1912, within the industry has been truly remarkable and Harrogate Week symbolises that.

The technology on show during Harrogate 2012 would have had NASA astronauts opened jawed with amazement in 1987, and there is no sign of progress slowing.

Whatever the task which is required on the golf course, there will be a boffin in an R&D Department somewhere, looking at ways of making your professional life better or easier.

The fruits of their labours to date will be there for all to see in one of the four Halls at Harrogate International Centre, while the world renowned Continue to Learn programme ensures that those who take part are in a position to keep on top of all those industry developments.

It is a combination which has proved a very productive cocktail for all concerned over the years and, coupled with the unique Harrogate atmosphere for the Apres Show, it creates a never to be forgotten occasion for all who attend.

Celebrating 25 years of BIGGA

BIGGA's 25th Anniversary Celebratory Evening, sponsored by Ransomes Jacobsen, will be a wonderful opportunity to share memories with some of those who have played a part in the success of the Association, as well as celebrating two and a half decades of progress, whilst looking forward to a bright future.

The occasion will comprise a drinks reception and convivial dinner all designed to give ample opportunity to catch up with friends from across the Industry.

Achievements since 1987, individually and collectively, will also be recognised and it will give a chance for every one to raise a glass to BIGGA.

A host of dignitaries will be in attendance, including Ken Schofield OBE, who led the PGA European Tour for 30 years.

Ken, right, will be making a Toast to the Association.

"BIGGA has come a very long way in 25 years and the Celebratory Dinner will give us a chance to pay tribute to everyone and everything that has made that possible.

"I am sure it will be a memorable occasion for all who attend," said BIGGA Chairman, Andrew Mellon.

The Association is delighted that one of its longest standing and best supporters, Ransomes Jacobsen, will be sponsoring the event.

Ken Schofield OBE

"We have always seen BIGGA as a valued partner and have enjoyed a close working relationship with the Association over the last 25 years.

We are delighted to be able to sponsor the 25th Anniversary Celebration and wish everyone at BIGGA every success for the next 25 years," said Dave Withers, President of Jacobsen.

The Celebratory Evening takes place at The Old Swan Hotel, in Harrogate, on January 24, 2012.

Tickets are available to BIGGA members and guests, and can be purchased from Rachael or Angela at BIGGA. Tel. 01347 833800.
