Tap into the R&A

There is great support out there for you if you only know where to look. The R&A Scholarship Programme is well worth considering

Did you know that The R&A supports greenkeepers that want to further their education?
Did you know that R&A Scholarships are available to greenkeepers studying higher education courses (HNC and above) in golf course management at Elmwood and Myerscough Colleges?

Since 2004, The R&A has invested over £330,000 in its Greenkeeper Scholarship Programme, helping 109 students progress along their education path.

On Tuesday, January 24, from 11.50am, at the Show floor Theatre (by the BIGGA stand), you will be able to hear how you can become an R&A Scholar and benefit from a financial contribution, and the experience of being associated with the world golf development and Rules body and organiser of The Open Championship.

Not only do R&A Scholars get financial support towards the cost of their education, they also have the opportunity to engage with The R&A through a website dedicated to Scholars past and present.

A total of 12 Scholars, each year, get to attend a field study week on the island of South Uist to spend time at Askernish Golf Club with guest speakers who discuss the architectural development, natural history and greenkeeping practices at this unique course. This is a lifechanging experience.

Candidates for an R&A Scholarship are selected by the colleges, with input from The R&A. The level of support available varies dependent on the nature of the course being studied and where in the world the student is travelling from

- anything from £500 to £5,000 per Scholar for each year of their studies.

The R&A Greenkeeper Scholarship Programme is a truly international scheme. As well as home-grown greenkeepers, the programme has helped students from China, Croatia, Czech Republic, Estonia, Germany, Hungary, Iceland, India, Italy, Nepal, Portugal, Slovakia, Slovenia, South Africa, Spain and the USA.

You can read more about our Scholars in the 'News' section of The R&A website, www.randa.org/
