

Left Flossmoor Country Club to take civil service examination as greenskeeper for the South Park Board, having two nine hole courses, one 18 and four bowling greens. When the park systems consolidated in 1934 was greenskeeper for five nine hole courses and one 18 and six bowling greens. Stayed on the job for thirty years.

Some incidents that stand out in mind in particular are Geo. Davis with his "T" model going around peddling golf course supplies, Ed Dearie, Jr., doing all the talking for John MacGreagor when he was secretary, also the whole Dearie family and relatives when they were kids, and the Scotchmen, Pete Stewart, Alec Binnie, Anderson, MacIntosh, Sr. and many others who wouldn't give away their secrets. You can include Dutra and Stupple and Dinelli too. Also, O. J. Noer in 1927 when he sold Pickwick a load of sludge in burlap bags that caught fire and burnt the barn down. I'll never forget that overcoat O. J. had with the velvet collar. Herb and Joe Graffis out at Pickwick most every Sunday with Joe Davis, learning the tricks of their now prosperous business.

Names, dates, meetings and all the wonderful events would fill a fair sized book besides all the favors that have been bestowed on me and the hundreds of friends I have made and who have been overwhelming with kindness and consideration. This goes for all the dealers, salesmen and truck drivers, not a bad egg in the whole lot. The wonderful experience in thirty-five years has been worth more than money can provide and I hope it continues for sometime to come.
