BAD BLUNDERS

In a Chicago library there is a record written by five hundred men who told of the greatest mistakes of their lives. Here are the blunders mentioned most frequently:

Gambling

Reading worthless or harmful books

Carelessness about religion

Inability to stick to anything

Wasting time

Failure to save money.

The hard fundamentals of diplomacy may be best achieved in the quiet channels where the play of public light is not so bright and cold as to freeze the diplomats in rigid posture. — Wausau Record-Herald.
