

MACARTHUR PRAYER: A CODE FOR HIS SON

Washington, April 5 (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur is leaving a spiritual legacy to his son, Arthur—a father's prayer he wrote in the Philippines during the desperate early days of World War II in the Pacific.

According to the general's biographer, Maj. Gen. Courtney Whitney, the family used this MacArthur credo frequently in early morning devotions:

"Build me a son, O Lord, who will be strong enough to know when he is weak, and brave enough to face himself when he is afraid; one who will be proud and unbending in honest defeat, and humble and gentle in victory.

Easy Path to Be Shunned

"Build me a son whose wishes will not take the place of deeds; a son who will know Thee—and that to know himself is the foundation stone of knowledge.

"Lead him, I pray, not in the path of ease and comfort, but under stress and spur of difficulties and challenge. Here let him learn to stand up in the storm; here let him learn compassion for those who fail.

"Build me a son whose heart will be clear, whose goal will be high, a son who will master himself before he seeks to master other men, one who will reach into the future, yet never forget the past.

Greatness in Simplicity

"And after all these things are his, give him, I pray, enough of a sense of humor, so that he may always be serious, yet never take himself too seriously. Give him humility, so that he may always remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, and the meekness of true strength.

"Then I, his father, will dare to whisper, 'I have not lived in vain.'"
