WESTERN OPEN

The Western Open was played at TAM O'SHANTER Country Club on July, 1-4, 1965 on a perfect Golf Course that was not tricked up but played on the course as members normally play it. The low scores were what the gallery enjoyed. The crowds were not as big as last year because of the absence of Palmer, Player and Nicklaus. They went to England to practice for the British Open. Billy Casper ended up 14 under par.
