Another evening the Mid-Atlantic Association gave a Gay Nineties Party. The music was enjoyable. A Gay Nineties motiff was carried throughout. This is the first conference that we have attended where there has been dancing and we believe it was an excellent thought.

We visited the Midwest Association's Friendship Room several times. The Committee and all the extra helpers were busy supplying everyone's need and they are to be commended. Mrs. Florence Smith, mother of Dudley Smith, attended the Conference. She resides in Kingston, New York. It was a pleasure being with her and we know she enjoyed herself tremendously.

The last evening the Annual G.C.S.A.A. Banquet was given. There were 960 people present for the dinner. The dinner was delicious and beautifully served. Entertainment followed. Featured were Joseph Sodja, Guitarist, formerly with Fred Waring; Singing Star Jeanne Steel, Singing Star from the Broadway hit "Gypsy"; and West and Maza, Unique Comedy Act.

There was more to see in Washington, D.C. California has extended to us an invitation to visit their state in '68. The Conference will be held in San Francisco. We are sure we will lose our heart in San Francisco.

APRIL MEETING

In lieu of the educational program a general discussion will be held regarding Class E Associate Membership in the Midwest Association. All Class E members will be excused from attendance.

The week before our national conference, a letter was mailed to Chapter secretaries and voting delegates, authorized by the Midwest Board of Directors, endorsing Ted Woehrle as our candidate for director of the National Association. The letter related Woehrle's background, and qualifications for the position.

Walter Fuchs, first Vice President of Midwest Association, will give an address at the 32nd Iowa Conference on March 14th in Des Moines.
