TIRED AMERICAN

By Alan McIntosh, Publisher
The Rock County Herald, Luverne, Minn.

I am a tired American.

I am tired of being sneered - at by the world pan-handlers who use my country as a whipping boy 365 days a year.

I'm tired of having American embassies and information centers stoned, burned and sacked by mobs who still accept my money and my food.

I am choked up to here by the hordes of dirty unwashed who try to intimidate our Government by placard, picket line and sit-ins and who are against the forces of law, order and decency.

I am fed up with the mobs of scabby-faced, long-haired young men and short-haired girls who claim they represent the "new wave" of America and who sneer at the old-fashioned virtues of honesty, integrity and morality on which America grew to greatness.

I am tired of having my tax dollars go to dictators who play both sides against the middle with threats of what will happen if we cut off the golden stream of money.

I am a tired American, angered by the self-righteous breastbeater critics of America, at home and abroad, who set impossible yardsticks for the United States but who never apply the same standards to the French, the British, the Russians, the Chinese.

I am tired of clergymen who have made a career out of integration causes, yet send their own children to private schools.

I resent those who try to peddle the belief, in schools and colleges, that capitalism is a dirty word and that free enterprise and private initiative are only synonyms for greed. They say they hate capitalism, but they are always right at the head of the line demanding their share of the American way of life.

I am very tired of those who are trying to sell me the belief that America is not the greatest nation in all the world — a generous-hearted nation — a nation dedicated to the policy of trying to help the "have nots" achieve some of the good things that our system of free enterprise brought about.
