A CREED

I will study the language of gentleness and refuse to use words that bite and tones that crush. I will practice patience at home lest my temper break through unexpectedly and disgrace me. I will remember that my neighbors have troubles enough without unloading mine on them. I will excuse others' faults and failures as often and fully as I expect others to be lenient with mine. I will be a friend under trying tests, and wear everywhere a good will face, unchilled by aloofness. I will gladden my nature by smiling out loud on every fair occasion, and by outlook optimistically. I will pray frequently, think good thoughts, believe in my fellowman, and do a full day's work without fear or favor.
