Midwest Breezes

Wedding bells have entered into the life of Dudley Smith, Superintendent at Silver Lake Country Club, on May 12, 1974. At this writing date Dudley and Mrs. Smith are honeymooning for two weeks in England. They will visit with our good friend John Campbell.

We are sorry to hear of the death of Clarence Muller's father-in-law who recently passed away. Clarence has been Superintendent at Glendale Country Club for many years.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kronn, on May 16th, celebrated their thirty-eighth wedding anniversary. Congratulations.

Jerry Hanko, former Superintendents at Timber Trails and a member of the board of directors of the Midwest Golf Course Superintendents Association, has departed from our Chicago area. Jerry has purchased a farm in New London, Ohio. We all wish him the best of luck.

Bert Rost, Superintendent at Elcona Country Club, Elkhart, Indiana, is retiring on June 30, 1974. Bert was Superintendent at Elcona for the past eight years. He was, previous to this, several years in the Chicago area at Park Ridge Country Club and also at Butterfield Country Club. Bert started his golf career in the state of Iowa. He also was the editor of the Bull Sheet in the late fifties and early sixties. The Rosts have purchased a home on the west coast in Florida. Our congratulations to Bert and we all wish him and Mrs. Rost many, many years of enjoyable living in Florida.

Bruce Burchfield, Superintendent at Calumet Country Club, reports a new Toro automotive irrigation system will be installed later this summer and early fall. Work to be executed by March Irrigation Co.

C. E. (Scotty) Stewart would like it to be known that his engineering services will not be available during the month of July, for it is his intention to do considerable traveling abroad during that period.

On August 1st Marvin Gruening's son will become golf course superintendent at Nordic Hills Country Club under the supervision of David Meyer who also supervises Indian Lakes Golf Course for Carson Pirie Scott and Company.

Our June meeting, held at Turnberry Country Club, was well attended. Ninety-four enjoyed a delicious dinner. Sixty-nine members played golf, over a beautifully maintained golf course. Thanks to Cliff Behrendt, Superintendent.
