THE SUPERINTENDENT'S LAMENT

O give me a course
Where no patches of brown
Mark the grave of changeover grass.

O give me a course
Where no golfers frown
On greens "as slick as glass"

O give me fairways evergreen,
Let my Eden grow,
One bad lie on all eighteen
Can make a temper blow.

O let my course so verdant be,
So manicured and trouble-free
That someday some great sport will say,
"It's not your fault
I shot a hundred and three."
