THE HISTORY OF A LIE

First somebody told it,
Then the room wouldn't hold it,
So the busy tongues rolled it
Till they got it outside:
Then the crowd came across it,
And never once lost it,
But tossed it and tossed it,
Till it grew long and wide.
This lie brought forth others,
Evil sisters and brothers,
A terrible crew,
As headlong they hurried,
The people they flurried
And troubled and worried,
As lies always do.
So, evil-boded,
This monstrous lie goaded,
Till at last it exploded,
In sin and shame.
But from mud and from mire
The pieces flew higher,
Till they hit the sad liar,
And killed his good name.
