DAVID FAY AND MICHAEL BUTZ ASSUME NEW USGA DUTIES; TIMOTHY ANSETT JOINS USGA GREEN SECTION

Far Hills, NJ - (November 25, 1980; - David Fay, Tournament Relations Manager of the United States Golf Association for the past two years, has been appointed to the newly-created position of Manager, Rules and Program Development of the USGA, it was announced today by P. J. Boatwright, Jr., Executive Director of the USGA.

Simultaneously, Michael Butz, USGA Southeastern Regional Affairs Representative, since April, was named to replace Fay as Tournament Relations Manager.

Also, Timothy Ansett has been named Agronomist for the Northeastern Region of the USGA Green Section.

All three have their offices located at Golf House in Far Hills, New Jersey.

Among his principal duties, Fay will assist in managing the administration of the USGA Associates Program and other assigned program development activities. Also, he will assist in responding to Rules of Golf inquiries from the general public, as well as other Rules activities, and will be involved with various aspects of the USGA's external communications program.

Before joining the USGA staff, Fay was the communications director of the Metropolitan Golf Association in New York City. He was graduated from Colgate University in 1972. Fay and his wife Joan currently reside in Summit, New Jersey.

In his new position, Butz, a native of Chambersburg, Pennsylvania, will assist USGA Member Clubs with preparations for the 11 national championships. Upon joining the USGA last April as a Regional Affairs Representative, his duties included providing direct services to golf clubs and associations located in the Southeast and expanding the use of the Green Section's Turf Advisory Service.

A graduate of Wake Forest University, Butz was a sales representative before joining the USGA. He currently resides in Gladstone, New Jersey.

As a Green Section Agronomist, Ansett will be assisting USGA Member Clubs in the Northeastern Region with all aspects of golf course maintenance and management.

A 1976 graduate of Michigan State University, Ansett earned his master's degree in horticulture from Colorado State University in 1978. Before joining the USGA staff, he was a landscape/turf advisor for the University of California Cooperative Extension. A native of Toronto, Canada, Ansett currently resides in Somerville, New Jersey.
