On Course With The President

by Timothy Kelly,
President, MAGCS

A time for change is coming, because on November 10th, the MAGCS membership will elect a new President and Board of Directors. This will be my last President's message. It has been a privilege to be the President of the MAGCS during the past year. I appreciate the effort that the entire Board has made during the past year. The Rookie of the Year Award, for this year would be awarded to Kevin Czerkies. He has done an outstanding job with the Arrangements Committee. He has worked well with our Commercial Sponsors, and he provided them with the proper recognition they deserve as a Meeting Sponsor. Both he and Ed Braunsky did an outstanding job with the golf meetings and the new pre-payment, pre-registration system.

This has been a difficult time for me during this year. My father recently passed away after being seriously ill. He was preceded in death by my mother, only 17 months ago. I needed to spend some time to sort out my feelings and thoughts. I was able to do some of this recently by spending some time with my brothers at our family home in Cable, Wisconsin. Some of the time was spent closing down the home for the winter. A lot of the time was spent in thought and prayer. The three of us decided to take a canoe trip down the Namekagon River. It was quiet and beautiful. I saw and heard abundant wildlife. It was a great way to think, pray and to say goodbye.

The Board of Directors has decided to seek a new Executive Secretary. Penny Meyer, our current Executive Secretary, has agreed to continue to serve the MAGCS through October 31st of this year. Until a new Executive Secretary is on board the Secretary/Treasurer, Joel Purpur will be performing these duties along with the full help and support of the entire MAGCS Board. As further developments unfold the MAGCS Board will endeavor to keep the Membership well informed.

I hope to see many of our members at the Midwest Turf Clinic. The Clinic, Annual Meeting, and election will be held at Medinah Country Club, on November 10th.
