

A Splendid Evening . . . The MAGCS Fall Dinner Dance

*John Gurke, CGCS

The annual MAGCS Fall Dinner Dance took place on November 20 at Seven Bridges Golf Club, with Don and Geri Ferreri serving as our gracious hosts. The meal was excellent, and all who attended had a great time. Our own Gene Thompson and his band Grand Canyon provided live entertainment, which kept everyone on the dance floor throughout the night. Dave and Debbie Nadler again treated us to an open bar, for which we are extremely grateful.

If you have not attended this function in the past, you have been missing a very nice evening, as well as the opportunity for wives and significant others to meet and commiserate about the long season (which promises to be behind us soon). Thank you from the MAGCS to the Ferreris and Nadlers for their generosity, and to Donna Thompson for giving up her husband for the night so that we could enjoy ourselves.

Our host teaching (from L to R) Linda Anderson (Tim), Debbie Purpur (Joel), Cheryl DeRoo (Kevin) and Debbie Nadler (Dave) the Chicken Dance. Yikes!

Gene Thompson and Grand Canyon provided the lively entertainment.

Don and Geri Ferreri, our hosts.

Russ Stachlewitz and Jenny Dalton getting cozy.

Dudley and Marlene Smith.

Jim McNair and Diane Dickson enjoying a slow dance—the only kind Jim knows.

Dave and Debbie Nadler, our bar sponsors.

George and Diane O'Hara discussing red equipment.
