

Scenes From the First Annual West Side Holiday Party

John Gurke, CGCS
Aurora C.C.

The inaugural West Side Holiday Party was held on Tuesday, December 7 at Dave -n- Buster's, and the large turnout promises to make this an annual event. The party included an Italian buffet lunch, followed by games and goofiness. The private room had a capacity of 75, which will probably need to be bumped up for future years. Special thanks go out to all MAGCS members who had a part in arranging the event and whose generosity during the day was greatly appreciated.

Rick Uthe, Holly Gilmour and Scott Witte.

President Ferreri gets serious with Phil Taylor.

Kerry Anderson was so darn handsome that nobody wanted to be pictured with him.

Dan Sterr, Mike Mumper and an overly happy Joel Purpur.

Paul Yerkes and Erwin McKone are about to test the Power Card.

Wally Fuchs explains to Dave Nadler why he thinks the Cubs will win the 2000 World Series.
