FRONT COVER

Built in 1919, Bryn Mawr C.C., home course to MAGCS president Brian Bossert, CGCS has completed three years of a four-year master plan renovation. MAGCS member Rick Jacobsen is the project architect. Here, 152-yard, par-3 no.16 appears significantly different than before renovation – note the bunkering.

The Midwest Association of Golf Course Superintendents (MAGCS), founded December 24, 1926, is a professional organization whose goals include preservation and dissemination of scientific and practical knowledge pertaining to golf turf maintenance.

We endeavor to increase efficiency and economic performance while improving and enhancing the individual and collective prestige of the members.

The MAGCS member is also an environmental steward. We strive to uphold and enhance our surroundings by promoting flora and fauna in every facet in a manner that is beneficial to the general public now and in the future.
