

Northern Delights: Glen Erin Golf Club Hosts June Meeting

The June meeting took us north of the border into the land of Packers and cows, where the Glen Erin Golf Club and hosts Dave Nadler and Dave Braasch awaited us. The day could not have been nicer, as the previous day's rains cleared out in time for us to enjoy this spectacular new public course in Janesville. One hundred and twenty-four players tested Glen Erin's undulating terrain, tight-as-a-fist low-mow bluegrass fairways and fescue roughs, with 30 vying for the Dom Grotti Championship—the award given to the best superintendent/assistant superintendent team. This year's winners were Brad Legnaioli and Ronnie Newman of Highlands of Elgin Golf Course with a net 147, unseating previous champs Dan Marco and Nick Baker of Ruth Lake Country Club. The other golf events for the day included eight proximities, and resulted in the following manner:

Eric Johnson, esteemed golf professional at Glen Erin, was sorry to see our group leave.
