FRONT COVER

No. 18 at Seven Bridges Golf Club, host of the May ITF/MAGCS combined golf day, is a 569-yard par 5. "It plays downhill, downwind, allowing big hitters to reach in two," says superintendent Don Ferreri. Photo by Jim Trzinski.

The Midwest Association of Golf Course Superintendents (MAGCS), founded December 24, 1926, is a professional organization whose goals include preservation and dissemination of scientific and practical knowledge pertaining to golf turf maintenance.

We endeavor to increase efficiency and economic performance while improving and enhancing the individual and collective prestige of the members.

The MAGCS member is also an environmental steward. We strive to uphold and enhance our surroundings by promoting flora and fauna in every facet in a manner that is beneficial to the general public now and in the future.
