2007 ON COURSE EDITORIAL AWARDS

Each year the MAGCS editorial committee awards authors of On Course articles. The Gerber Award recognizes the best article written and published in On Course by a MAGCS Regular Member (Golf Course Superintendent). The Opperman Award recognizes the best article written and authored by a MAGCS member who is not a Regular Member (Class C, E, D). Winning authors will be recognized by the editorial committee at the MAGCS Annual Meeting and Midwest Turf Clinic on November 7, 2007. The following list of authors and articles qualify for the 2007 editorial awards.

Gerber Award Candidates 2006-2007

December 2005 - "Paper Trail" - Tim Anderson, CGCS
January 2006 - "A Place For Everyone" - Tommy Witt, CGCS
February 2006 - "Unexpected Treasure" -Doug Davis
June 2006 - "Tournament Time"- Scott Witte, CGCS
August 2006 - "Native Ecological Restoration at Rich Harvest Farms" - Scott Resetich and Jeff Vercautren
September 2006 - "The Last of the Western Open" – Fred Behnke, CGCS
October 2006 - "The Supporting Team Player"- Jon Jennings, CGCS
February 2007 - "Where Have all the Golfers Gone?"- Ken Shepherd
March 2007 - "Who are These Guys"- John Gurke, CGCS

Opperman Award Candidates 2006-07

October 2006 - "The Grass Profession" - Rusty Stachlewitz
January 2007 - "Golf Course Builders Host Annual Meeting and Invite MAGCS Members"- Sharon Riesenbeck
February 2007 - "Why Aren't You Using Biodiesel?" - Josh Murray
March 2007 - "Tall Fescue in Your Future" - Rusty Stachlewitz
March 2007 - "Architects and Builders: You Just Can't "Grow in" Without Them" - Sharon Riesenbeck
April 2007 - "Resident Geese...What's the Big Deal?" - Carla Wagner
April 2007 - "Precision Application Technology Pinpoints Turf Economics" - Jim Shone
May 2007 - "Ok, So Maybe Speed Doesn't Kill- But It Sure Can Hurt" - Raymond Hearn
July 2007 - "Where Did My Water Go?" - Tom Healy
July 2007 - "John Deere Horicon Works" - Steve Spuhler
August 2007 - "Instant Message" - Keith Krause