The Ratings Game

The 13th hole's putting green at Kingsley Club is described as "extremely undulating and will test the approach shots and putting skills of the best players. This hole is unlike any other and will definitely be a topic of conversation at the nineteenth hole!" Have you ever seen a putting surface that has its own shadows?

The Midwest Association of Golf Course Superintendents (MAGCS), founded December 24, 1926, is a professional organization whose goals include preservation and dissemination of scientific and practical knowledge pertaining to golf turf maintenance. We endeavor to increase efficiency and economic performance while improving and enhancing the individual and collective prestige of the members.

The MAGCS member is also an environmental steward. We strive to uphold and enhance our surroundings by promoting flora and fauna in every facet in a manner that is beneficial to the general public now and in the future.
