FEBRUARY 2011 Volume 64 No. 10

And you thought you had an airtight employment contract? Tim Anderson explains in his feature how linen companies lock our clubs and courses in for the long haul.

FRONT COVER

I knew I took a picture of this pachyderm last time I was in Brookfield for some reason. I couldn't resist with the title of our feature article this month.

The Midwest Association of Golf Course Superintendents (MAGCS), founded December 24, 1926, is a professional organization whose goals include preservation and dissemination of scientific and practical knowledge pertaining to golf turf maintenance. We endeavor to increase efficiency and economic performance while improving and enhancing the individual and collective prestige of the members.

The MAGCS member is also an environmental steward. We strive to uphold and enhance our surroundings by promoting flora and fauna in every facet in a manner that is beneficial to the general public now and in the future.
