Briarwood Country Club's native areas were created by Paul Voykin and crew before they were cool.

FRONT COVER

Congratulations to Paul Voykin on his induction into the Illinois Golf Hall of Fame. Cover photo is one of the many golf holes at Briarwood that use native plants and non mowed areas to enhance the golf experience.

The Midwest Association of Golf Course Superintendents (MAGCS), founded December 24, 1926, is a professional organization whose goals include preservation and dissemination of scientific and practical knowledge pertaining to golf turf maintenance. We endeavor to increase efficiency and economic performance while improving and enhancing the individual and collective prestige of the members.

The MAGCS member is also an environmental steward. We strive to uphold and enhance our surroundings by promoting flora and fauna in every facet in a manner that is beneficial to the general public now and in the future.
