Brings back memories, doesn't it?

The 3rd Annual iTurfExpo was held on September 22nd at Midwest Golf House on the grounds of the Sunshine Course. The event included research presentations from local turfgrass experts such as Dr. Bruce Branham (University of Illinois), Dr. Ken Diesburg (Southern Illinois University), Dr. Aaron Patton (Purdue University), Dr. Jim Kerns (University of Wisconsin), Dr. Derek Settle (CDGA), Tim Sibicky (CDGA), Shelby Henning (University of Illinois), and Dr. Lee Miller (University of Missouri). These hands-on presentations allowed visitors to see with their own eyes the results of the research conducted on plots very similar to their own courses. After lunch, attendees were able to enjoy the afternoon mingling with colleagues and commercial reps while visiting the various product showcases and equipment demonstrations, taking part in the silent auction to bid on donated products and services for the benefit of turf research, take a shot at Chicagoland Turf's Golf Skills Challenge, and to view and vote on their favorite varieties at the Flower Trials. The weather cooperated, and the event was enjoyed by all in attendance. Special thanks to those whose tireless preparation made it possible—Erwin McKone and the ITF Board (with the exception of me—I didn't help at all), Luke Cella, Dr. Settle, CDGA Executive Director Robert Markionni, Sunshine Course superintendent Chris Painter, assistant Niki Munroe, Manager of Turfgrass Research Tim Sibicky, summer research assistant Nick Devries, summer intern from Purdue Peter Westfall, and summer helper Anthony Petrarca. Also many thanks to the day's sponsors—the Platinum Level: Chicagoland Turf and Syngenta; Gold Level: BASF, Arthur Clesen, Inc., and J.W. Turf; Silver Level: Bayer, Tyler Enterprises, Reinders, Inc., Gruenmann Turf, Burris Equipment, and Dow AgroSciences; and Bronze Level: AGRO Chem West and Spectrum Technologies. Great job everyone!
