LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Life's little ills annoyed me
When those little ills were few,
And the one fly in the ointment
Put me into a dreadful stew.
But experience has taught me
The infrequent good to prize,
Now I'm glad to find some ointment
In my little pot of flies.

WORD TO THE WISE

There is a great difference between the right word and the word that is almost right. For instance, you can call a woman a kitten, but not a cat; a chicken, but not a hen; a duck, but not a goose; a vision but not a sight.—The Regina (Sask.) Commonwealth.

Hatred is the coward's revenge for being intimidated—George Bernard Shaw.
