MAGCS 2012 Scholars

There were 20 applicants for the Midwest's scholarships this year. Eight of the applicants are in college and 12 are headed off for their first year this August. We send each of them well wishes for the coming year and thank them for applying.

Congratulations to the Midwest's 2012 Scholars.

Bobby Dunteman son of MAGCS member Bob Dunteman will be attending Iowa State University and studying Agricultural Engineering this fall. Bobby graduated this past May from St. Charles North High School where he played varsity tennis and was a member of the Math National Honor Society and the Business Professionals of America.

Sarrah Ludwig daughter of Michael Ludwig will be attending Valparaiso University and play Division 1 soccer this fall. Sarah has played soccer since she was eight years old culminating her high school career as an All Sectional Player for Downer's Grove South High School. Sarrah is also a member of the National Honors Society and has volunteered at Sharing Connections Furniture Bank over the past several years to help those in need.

Emily Schaefer, daughter of Paul Schaefer is a junior at the University of Illinois studying Elementary Education with an endorsement in Spanish. Her main goal is to become a dual-language elementary school teacher. Emily is a dancer on the Illinettes Dance Team at the U of I and a member of the Student Education Association. She volunteers throughout the year at elementary schools in Champaign and Crystal Lake. -OC
