Dear Reader,

This Fall 1983 issue of "The Florida Green", (formerly "The South Florida Green"), is special because it is our 10th Anniversary Issue. In it we are featuring some of our most popular articles from over the years. The successful growth of our publication is possible because people in our industry have gotten involved by writing articles such as the ones we have selected for this issue. They have been willing to share their knowledge in a way that has been of benefit to us all.

These past years our publication has been dedicated to improving turf by recognizing and promoting excellence in Golf Course Management. We pledge to continue to be honest above all and to give responsible coverage while maintaining our high standards when reporting on the issues facing Golf Course Superintendents in Florida.

We hope you will enjoy reading this anniversary issue as much as we enjoyed putting it together for you.
