

Florida Golf Day

Governor Bob Graham declared May 5, 1984 as Golf Day. The Florida Golf Course Superintendents Association in regional tournaments raised thirteen thousand dollars for turf grass research. Pictured here is the golf tournament held by the Palm Beach Chapter at East Lake Country Club. Golf Course Superintendent and Tournament Director was Gary Grump.

Left to right (winning team at 14 under par 56) Steve Pearson, Rodger Gambelin, Walt Christensian and Earl Christensian.

Left to right David Bailey, President Palm Beach G.C.S.A. Kevin Downing, Public Relations Director, Florida G.C.S.A., Steve Pearson, Superintendent Boca Grove.

Two Florida beauties helping with tournament.