

Gardner Becomes V.P.

LESCO, Inc., Rocky River, OH, has named Phillip R. Gardner as a new vice president.

Gardner, who started with the company in 1976, works out of LESCO's Sebring, FL, facility. He has worked in LESCO's Florida operations since joining the company in 1976 as a LESCO salesman calling on golf courses with the first "warehouse-on-wheels."

In 1979 Gardner was named a regional sales manager for the southeastern United States. In January 1983 he was promoted to South East Regional Manager for all operations as well as regional sales.

Gardner is a 1961 graduate of Westerville High School. Before joining LESCO, he worked for eight years with Groezinger Golf Enterprises as golf course superintendent of Black Hawk and Minerva Lake Golf Courses near Columbus, OH.

A member of the Florida Turfgrass Association, the Southern Florida Golf Course Superintendents Association, the Palm Beach GCSA and the Florida Pest Control Association, Gardner now resides in Sebring. ■
