good communication is imperative for establishing priorities.

Since the golf course will be a selling point for developers, it must be maintained to look good and play well at all times. Private clubs, however, may be forced to choose between overseeding in the winter and buying a new greensmower in the spring.

Whatever the situation, both developers and members have to rely on the expertise and advice of the superintendent on matters concerning the golf course.

And no matter what the circumstances, "The bottom line," says Black, "is that members are your bosses."

The ability to communicate with them is as important to the superintendent as the knowledge he possesses of turf. ■

South Florida PGA Pro-Supt. Tournament

By Larry Bush

STUART, Fla. — Rick Dytrych and Pete Brooks of the Palm Beach Par 3 Golf Club won the fourth annual South Florida PGA Section Pro-Superintendent tournament on a match of cards Friday at Mariner Sands.

They had birdied the par-3 12th hole, selected in a blind draw by tournament officials, enroute to a seven under par 65 on the 6,700-yard Gold course.

Also posting a 65 in the net better ball event were pro Dan St. Louis, Wellington Club, West Palm Beach, and J.B. Branstrom, the golf course superintendent at Palm Beach Polo & CC. But St. Louis and Branstrom had bogied the 12th hole.

Dytrych and St. Louis each made four birdies. Dytrych finished with a 72, St. Louis a 75.

Low pro in the tournament which drew 43 twosomes was Roger Kennedy, Pompano Beach CC, with a one under par 71 on nines of 36-35.

Gleneagles superintendent Gary Price made a hole-in-one at the 165-yard 15th hole with a 6-iron. "It hit about three feet in front of the hole and rolled in," said his pro, Lew Hersey. They teamed for a total of 75, out of the money.

John Shulock of Vero Beach, an American League umpire who worked the recent baseball World Series, was the guest speaker during the awards cocktail party.
