NEWS ROUNDUP FLORIDA REMAINS FIRST IN NEW COURSES ..... 6
With 35 courses added to the state's golf course inventory, Florida leads the nation in new course openings for 1991. But the National Golf Foundation's figures show that Michigan is likely to be on top next year.

GROWING BEYOND OUR BORDERS GCSAA GOES PACIFIC ..... 8
With hundreds of new golf courses cropping up all around the Pacific Rim and 4,000 courses already in operation there, the GCSAA has announced it will open a Pacific Rim office and conduct a Conference and Trade Show in 1993.

COVER STORY WHERE BENTGRASS GROWS, MOST OF THE YEAR ..... 16
Members of The Reserve know the turf will be bad for three to four months of summer each year. But when the weather is cooler during the other eight months, they play on plush bentgrass.

GREEN GROW THE SECTIONS, O USGA EDUCATES MANY ..... 32
Survival for the average golf course superintendent requires a broad knowledge. The USGA's Green Section conferences recently helped bring more useful information to superintendents attending. Here's a review of the major points discussed.

SPOTLIGHT 24 VOLUNTEERS EARN MONEY FOR THEIR CHAPTER ..... 36
Borrowing an idea from the Palm Beach chapter, The Central Florida GCSA chapter assisted the NBC crew covering the Nestle Invitational Tournament at Bay Hill and earned some hefty bucks for their treasury.

OVERSEEDING SPECIAL REPORT ..... 40
If you are looking for an alternative to ryegrass, try poa trivialis next fall. Dr. Richard Hurley of Loft Seed, Inc. discusses the advantages of using this variety, otherwise known as rough bluegrass. He also gives a warning about using imported varieties.

GREENWARD COULD YOU DEFEND YOUR JOB? ..... 44
Among the many news items sent out by the GCSAA on what's happening in governmental affairs, a handy checklist citing the value and "goodness" of golf, golf courses and the job you do is one you should photo-copy and carry with you.

GREEN SIDE UP DEAR COUNTRY CLUB MEMBER ..... 48
Editor Joel Jackson just happened to find blowing in the wind this letter from an unnamed golf course superintendent to a complaining country club member. He shares the unabridged contents with us for our edification.
