

PHOTOS TO THE EDITOR

Wildlife Abounds on the Naples National Golf Club

Superintendent Terry Woods was kind enough to share his drought emergency management tips in Hands On for the Spring issue, and his assistant, Bill Wiggins, sent some photos of wildlife on the course.

Eagle Claw is a brand of fish hooks. Now you know why. Photo by Bill Wiggins.

Naples National Golf Club, where the deer and the “antelope” play. Well at least the deer.