

Audubon International Certified Golf Courses

#18 Old Course, Broken Sound. Improving habitat and water quality by using native grasses and aquatic plants. Photo by Joe Hubbard.

Audubon International certifies golf courses enrolled in the Audubon Cooperative Sanctuary Program for Golf Courses and the Audubon Signature Programs that demonstrate their commitment to the environment. These eco-friendly courses meet required standards for protecting water quality, conserving natural resources, and providing wildlife habitats. More information about the Audubon International programs can be found at www.auduboninternational.org. The following Florida courses have achieved certification as of July 12, 2010.
