CROWFOOT OPEN

Traditionally the last big event of the summer is the Central Florida Chapter's Larry Kamphaus Crowfoot

But the weekend is about more than just golf. Preceding the festivities, the Florida GCSA holds its Summer Board and Annual Meetings. Final budget approval for the new fiscal year and the election of new officers are two main agenda items including all the new and old business discussions.

Two of the new items unveiled at the meeting were the new FGCSA Industry Partners Program which will allow advertisers and sponsors of FGCSA publications and events to sign up for various partnership levels crafted to meet the participation needs of old and new sponsors. Also in the works is a new FGCSA interactive Web site which is
