Topeka cites Shields

Topeka (Kansas) Public Golf Course superintendent James Shields was honored as the city of Topeka's Employee of the Month in August.

North Central

Mayor Harry Felker III presented the award at the course's clubroom.

Shields has worked at the course since 1960, and as superintendent since 1980.

Illinois honors Staudt

The Illinois Turfgrass Foundation will present retired Geneva Golf Club superintendent Albie Staudt its 1990 Distinguished Service Award at the annual meeting, Dec. 4 in Springfield.

Staudt was superintendent at Geneva GC for 30 years, was active with the foundation, has been a member of the Midwest Association of Golf Course Superintendents since 1946, and is a past president and board member of the MAGCS.

An individual selected for the award must be active in the foundation or Illinois turfgrass academic community, officer in a state or local turfgrass organization, a dedicated promoter of the industry, an innovator of new ideas and cultural practices, honest and self-disciplined, and highly knowledgeable about turfgrass.

Past recipients include Frank J. Stynchula, retired superintendent at Chanute Air Force Base, and Dr. Al Turgeon, head of the Department of Agronomy at Penn State University.

Suhey keynote speaker

Former Chicago Bears fullback Matt Suhey, an avid golfer, will deliver the keynote address Dec. 4 at the North Central Turfgrass Exposition in Springfield, Ill.

More information on the NCTE is available by calling the foundation at 312-644-0828.

Pocono Turfgrass board

Bill Lansdowne, who served as president of the Pocono Turfgrass Association in Eastern Pennsylvania in 1972-73, has been elected to a second term.

Lansdowne, of the Country Club of Scranton, will lead a new slate of officers that includes Vice President Dennis Watkins of Lords Valley Country Club and Secretary-Treasurer Jeff Lansdowne of Woodloch Springs Country Club.

Directors are Hal Parr, Ian Kunesch, John Patterson, John Downer and Mark Monahan.

Pennsylvania job changes

Superintendent Jeff Lansdowne has moved from Pocono Farms Country Club to Woodloch Springs Country Club, while Ron Garrison has moved from Lords Valley Country Club to Center Valley Country Club and Doug Davis has left Riverton Golf Club for Pocono Farms.
