

ON THE MOVE

Collins heads Management, Acquisitions Division for Dye

Dye Designs of Denver, Colo., has named Gary Collins president of its newly formed Golf Club Management and Acquisition Division.

The division operates the Golf Club of Illinois in Chicago and plans to buy another 25 clubs over the next five years.

Collins has worked for 12 years with Club Corp. of America, the last four as general manager at Glenmoor Country Club in Cherry Hills Village, Colo.

He holds degrees from the University of Texas and Texas A&M.

Gary Collins

Cushman hires training leader

Dave Ferguson of Lincoln has been appointed training coordinator for Cushman Inc., headquartered in Lincoln, Neb.

Ferguson will be responsible for helping direct and coordinate training video programs, slide presentations, trade show programs and training aids for dealers and marketing personnel.

He has worked in the experimental division of the Cushman engineering department for five years. Previously, he worked in customer service for Hy-Gain Electronics and served as quality control manager for Pure Water, Inc.

Ed Miller takes charge of Pebble Beach grounds

Edward J. Miller has joined Pebble Beach Co. as manager of superintendents responsible for all golf course operations, according to Paul Spengler, vice president of golf.

Miller comes to Pebble Beach from Desert Forest Golf Club in Carefree, Ariz., where he served as superintendent for four years. He has more than 10 years experience in golf course management, including superintendent posts at Cherry

Edward Miller

Hills Country Club in Englewood, Colo., and Medinah (Ill.) Country Club.

He is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin and holds a turfgrass management certificate from Pennsylvania State University.

Keeler v-p sales for RedMax

John Keeler has been named RedMax's vice president of sales and marketing.

Prior to his promotion, he was RedMax's national sales manager.

RedMax, a division of Komatsu Zenoah, manufactures yard and garden equipment.

Libraty nat'l sales manager for Amiad USA

Amiad U.S.A., Inc., of Reseda, Calif., has appointed Robert Libraty as national sales manager.

Issac Orlans, president of the filtration and fertigation manufacturing firm, said Libraty will be responsible for all sales activities of the company throughout U.S., Canada and Mexico.

Libraty was previously sales engineer for Knurr U.S.A., Inc. He holds a degree in engineering from Indiana Institute of Technology.

Hunter heads turfgrass sales for Davenport

Davenport Seed Corp. has named Emory Hunter turfgrass seed and specialty products sales manager in one of three management moves.

Davenport, of Davenport, Wash., a wholly owned subsidiary of Warren's Turf, Inc. of Crystal Lake, Ill., also appointed Karen Reinbold sales and administrative assistant and Todd Harris field serviceman for Columbia Basin seed growers.

Hunter is a 22-year veteran with Warren's, and for the past eight years has been divisional manager of Warren's Seed and Special Products Division.

Reinbold was most recently account executive for Dale Severson and Associates of Spokane, Wash. She is a graduate of Washington State University with a bachelor's degree in communications.

Harris was formerly with Jacklin Seed in Twin Falls, Idaho, and has extensive field service experience in turfgrass seed and research. He holds a degree in plant science from the University of Idaho.

Kehl new v-p sales at PGI

PGI Golf, Inc. of Loudonville, Ohio, has appointed Jack E. Kehl vice president of sales and marketing, according to President John T. Donley.

Kehl will be responsible for PGI's sales and marketing efforts, including introduction of its own golf ball brand name beginning this fall. Kehl brings 25 years of experience in the golf industry to PGI.

Waiting For Parts Is About As Exciting As Watching Grass Grow.

When you've got a mower down unexpectedly, and you need parts yesterday, ask your distributor about Direct Today 48 Hour Delivery. Any part not immediately available will be delivered to you within 48 hours. No minimum. No maximum. No extra charge.

TORO

Direct Today 48 Hour Delivery covers only parts supported by The Toro Company, Minneapolis and does not include irrigation, rider, or certain engine parts. Program subject to carrier delivery restrictions. "Toro" is a registered trademark of The Toro Company. 8111 Lyndale Ave. So., Minneapolis, MN 55420. ©1989 The Toro Company.

For free information circle #122