

THE WORLD OF MANAGEMENT IN '97

Franchising, consolidation and money were the key words on the 1997 management front.

Arnold Palmer Golf Management led the way by franchising the Palmer name and operating systems to course owners who want to continue operating their own facilities.

U.S. Golf Communities and Golf Ventures Inc. were among several management firms that merged in 1997, while ski industry operations like American Skiing Co. and Intrawest expanded their holdings to include more golf courses to help provide year-round cash flow.

And many companies like Troon Golf Management, GolfTrust, O.B. Sports and others dove into the public and private capital markets in search of capital to finance their expansions.

Palmer Mgt. moves toward franchising

By PETER BLAIS

ORLANDO, Fla. — Arnold Palmer Golf Management Co. has unveiled a franchise program that allows course owners to use the Palmer name and proprietary operating systems, but permits course owners to continue operating their golf facilities themselves.

"No one has provided management services to people who want to continue running their own courses, until now," said Palmer Chief Marketing Officer Joseph Redling. "We created this system specifically for them."

In exchange for an undisclosed annual franchise fee plus a percentage of course revenues, courses that pass a selective screening process can become part of a Palmer Management network that currently includes 20 courses nationwide.

Newly capitalized Troon

By PETER BLAIS

SCOTTSDALE, Ariz. — Formation of a new partnership between Scottsdale-based Troon Golf Management and Starwood Capital Group LLC of Greenwich, Conn., should help Troon expand its golf course management portfolio and acquire additional properties.

"We're looking at the East and Midwest," said Troon Golf President and Chief Executive Officer Dana Garmany. "We'll probably double our size to about 20 properties in the next 12 months."

Troon Golf's new partner, Starwood, is a 50-50 partner with Goldman Sachs in Westin Hotels. It

Golf Trust of America to raise $300 million

By PETER BLAIS

Golf Trust of America — a real estate investment trust established by the founders of The Legends Group in Myrtle Beach, S.C. — will raise $300 million over the next three years allowing it acquire at least 30 courses by the end of the decade, according to the investment banking firm that helped develop Golf Trust's original

February stock offering.

"Golf Trust owns 10 courses at this time," said Christopher Haley, senior research analyst with Wheat First Butcher Singer. "It expects to acquire another $55 million in 1997, $110 million in 1998 and $140 million in 1999. That should allow the REIT to more than triple the size of its portfolio."

American Skiing Co.

By PETER BLAIS

Skiing provides the monetary speed, but golf helps smooth out the financial bumps for American Skiing Company, a major Northern New England ski operator that is fast becoming one of the region's major golf course owners and operators.

Although it represents just 10 percent of ASC's total revenues, golf helps even out the company's cash flow throughout the year, according to ASC Chief Financial Officer Tom
