

GCSAA '96-97 Scholars recognized

LAWRENCE, Kan. — Eleven undergraduate college students have been recognized for high performance and achievement by the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America (GCSAA) Foundation with their selection as 1996-97 GCSAA Scholars.

Since 1956, The GCSAA Foundation has awarded scholarships to outstanding students planning careers as superintendents or in a related field. A student must be an undergraduate who has completed 24 credit hours of study. Honorees receive stipends ranging from $2,000 to $3,500. Awards are based upon academic excellence, appropriate career preparation and the potential to make an outstanding professional contribution. GCSAA Scholars will attend the 68th International Golf Course Conference and Show Feb. 6-12, 1997 in Las Vegas to be honored at the Friends of the Foundation reception.

The top-rated applicant is afforded the Mendenhall Award, named in honor of the late Chet Mendenhall, a charter member of GCSAA and a recent Kansas Golf Hall of Fame inductee. This year's Mendenhall designee is J. Paul Robertson of Olds College, Alberta, Canada.

The remaining GCSAA Scholars include: John Kevin Hutchins, Rutgers University; John Ellis Jordan, Iowa State University; Peter Anthony Severino, Penn State University; Michael R. McCall, Penn State University; Christopher M. Connors, North Carolina State University; James Daryl Roberts, Michigan State University; Dustin N. Riley, Penn State University; Micah Woods, Oregon State University; Peter S. George, Delhi College of Technology; and Kenyon G. Kyle, Ohio State University.

Ironite Products sponsors simultaneous interpreting services

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — Ironite Products Co., a leader in the fertilizer industry, has signed a three-year agreement to present simultaneous Japanese and Spanish interpreting services beginning with the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's (GCSAA) International Conference and Show here.

The complimentary service will be available to those attendees who want Japanese and/or Spanish interpretations of the session. It will be provided at the 1997 Conference and Show for the Innovative Superintendent Session: Part I (Feb. 10, 7-8:30 a.m.) and the Concurrent Education Session of Weather Roulette (Feb. 10, 9-11:45 a.m.).

Scottsdale, Ariz.-based Ironite will also sponsor interpreting services at the 1998 event in Anaheim, Calif., and the 1999 show in Orlando, Fla.

HERE. THERE. EVERYWHERE.

HOW'S THAT FOR APPLICATION GUIDELINES?

Breakfast on Club Car & Cyanamid

LAS VEGAS, Nev. — A thirst for knowledge and a hunger for croissants has led American Cyanamid Co. and Club Car, Inc. to sign a three-year agreement to present complimentary continental breakfasts at the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's (GCSAA) International Conference and Show.

The deal extends a partnership that began as a one-year pact last year. The breakfasts will be provided prior to the Innovative Superintendent sessions Feb. 10 and Feb. 11, from 6 a.m. to 7 a.m. The agreement calls for the continued support of similar functions at the 1998 event in Anaheim, Calif., and in 1999 in Orlando, Fla.

American Cyanamid Co., located in Wayne, N.J., produces herbicides, insecticides and plant growth regulators for all types of turfgrass. Club Car Inc., based in Augusta, Ga., builds a complete line of golf cars and utility vehicles, including accessories designed for use on golf courses.

