By M. LEVANS

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla. -The First Tee, launched in November in a national publicity wave headlined by George Bush and Earl Woods, has managed to pull together the golf industry's heaviest hitters in what is being called the most significant concerted initiative to create accesnority and junior golfers. According to The World Golf Foundation, The First Tee's founding organization, the initial focus will be on developing financial support to acquire locations for the facilities. To supplement these acquisitions, The First Tee plans

East Lake: Atlanta's inner-city gem

69TH GCSAA INTERNATIONAL GOLF CONFERENCE AND SHOW PREVIEW Meet the boord condidates, pages 40.43

By PETER BLAIS ATLANTA - It's too early to say exactly what the effects will be of the $100 million East Lake Meadows project here. But the private/public partnership that resulted in the renovation of the historic East Lake Golf Club, construction of a new executive length golf course and building of a 500-unit residential community looks like a boon for the Georgia capital's inner city.

The initial focus was the famous East Lake Golf Club, where golfing legend Bobby Jones learned to play the game. The club had deteriorated badly since the late 1960s when

MAINTENANCE

Genetic engineering could drive seed costs up By MARK LESLIE

COLUMBUS, Ohio -Remarkable advances in genetic engineering of turfgrass will bring new cultivars to the marketplace more quickly. But seed costs could go up markedly, particularly because different companies own patents on the various techniques and genes that drive the discoveries.

Future release of new turfgrass varieties will be punctuated by negotiations "to see who gets what out in the marketplace," said Dr. Virgil Meier, a plant breeder responsible for turfgrass development at O.M. Scott.

Meier explained that to Continued on page 34
