Boyne USA successfully mixes golf, skiing

By PETER BLAIS

PETOSKEY, Mich. — Recently, ski resort operators such as Intrawest and American Skiing Co. have increasingly turned to developing and/or acquiring golf courses as a way to help even out their cash flows and entice aging Baby Boomers to buy second homes.

It's a good strategy, but hardly new.

Detroit auto dealer and Boyne USA founder Everett Kircher, 82, launched his recreation empire with the founding of Boyne Mountain (Mich.) in 1947. He opened his first ski facility there in December 1948. Seventeen years later (1964), he purchased Boyne Highlands 30 miles northwest near Harbor Springs and opened his first course (Heather GC) in 1965. He followed that with the purchase of Big Sky in Montana in 1976, Boyne South in Naples, Fla., in 1992 and Crystal Mountain in Washington in 1997.

Today, Boyne USA boasts a total of 196 holes of golf located at the following facilities:
