

MacCurrach lassos Big Builder title

By ANDREW OVERBECK

DALLAS, Texas — Consistency is king. MacCurrach Golf Construction has followed up its successful 1999 campaign by winning the 2000 Golf Course News Large Builder of the Year award. Allan MacCurrach accepted the honor here at the Golf Course Builders Association of America's annual dinner Feb. 15.

MacCurrach Golf scored a 79.63 out of 80 points for his five projects in 2000.

Other participants in this year's contest were: Shapemasters, Quality Grassing and Services, Landscapes Unlimited, SAJO Construction, Barbaron, Frontier Construction, SEMA Golf, Niebur Golf, and RyanGolf.

AT THE TOP OF THEIR GAME

Jacksonville-based MacCurrach Golf Construction has been at or close to the top for the last five years. MacCurrach won the Small Builder award in 1996, placed second in 1997, and placed second in the Large Builder in 1998, before taking over the top spot for the last two years.

What's the secret to his success?

"Luck and great clients," said MacCurrach. "We also have the same staff that we had last year. The core of the company really takes a lot of pride in the work they do. There are 185 guys out there that are going to be excited about the fact that beyond their paychecks they truly have satisfied clients in their wake."

With the 1999 Large Builder title under his belt, MacCurrach noticed his clients' expectations ratchet up in 2000. "The demands they placed on us were awfully high," he said. "They were expecting the best in price, quality and schedule when they brought us on board. To know that we met or exceeded those expectations for another year is really gratifying."

MacCurrach Golf's team at work at the Tim Liddy-designed Hickory Stick Golf Club in Greenwood, Ind.

MacCurrach Golf completed five projects in 2000: The First Tee at Brentwood in Jacksonville, Fla.; St. John's Golf and Country Club in St. Johns County, Fla.; Camp Creek Golf Club in Panama City, Fla.; Hickory Stick Golf Club in Greenwood, Ind.; and Harbour Town Golf Links in Hilton Head, S.C.

RETOOLING DYE'S HARBOUR TOWN

Among his favorite projects of 2000 was working with Pete Dye at Harbour Town Golf Links. "It was an honor," said MacCurrach of the opportunity to do the renovation work on the 1969 Dye layout. "It was like working on a

Continued on page 29

Team Glase: (left to right) Neil McMannus, Darwin Sharp, Jim Glase, Mick Martin, (kneeling) Alberto Barba and Jody Mosley

Glase grabs Small Builder award

By ANDREW OVERBECK

DALLAS, Texas — While the 2000 Large Builder competition saw a repeat winner, the Small Builder title goes this year to a first-time winner. The 2000 Golf Course News Small Builder of the Year was awarded to Glase Golf Construction here at the Golf Course Builders Association of America's annual dinner Feb. 15.

Glase Golf took home the top prize this year with a score of 77.69 out of 80 on the two projects that the company completed in 2000.

Also placing high on this year's list were: Reed H. Berlinsky, Mid-America Golf and Landscape, Pennick Arrimour Golf, Golf Course Construction, C.E. Carter and Associates, Course Doctors, Golf Development Construction, and Furness Golf Construction.

A REGIONAL BUILDER

Jim Glase started Naples, Fla.-based Glase Golf Construction in 1997. Glase, a long-time veteran of the golf course industry, began building golf courses working with Wadsworth Golf Construction in Toledo, Ohio in the late 1960s. He also worked for architect John Bulla and builder Nick Seaman.

In 1997, Glase started the company for a simple reason: he needed money. "I couldn't make enough money working for somebody else, so I started my own business," he said. "I was also tired of traveling. I have three kids and I decided that it was time to stay in one spot."

In addition to other repair and minor renovation work at area courses,

Continued on page 29

Highlights of GCSAA Show & Conference

DALLAS, Texas — Exhibitors, superintendents and educators turned out in strength at the Golf Course Superintendents Association of America's (GCSAA) 72nd International Golf Course Show and Conference. Here are a few items of note:

- A total of 727 exhibitors covered an all-time high of 275,000 sq. ft. of floor space.

- Educational seminar attendance was estimated at 7,616, just shy of the record 7,903 established last year in New Orleans.

- The unofficial show attendance was 20,584, marking the sixth year in a row that the 20,000 figure has been eclipsed.

- A GCSAA bylaw amendment requiring additional qualifications for Class A members passed with a 75 percent of the vote at the association's annual meeting.

- Elected officers: Tommy Witt, president, The Kiawah Island Club, S.C.; Michael Wallace, vice president, Hop Meadow Country Club, Simsbury, Conn.; Jon Madden, secretary/treasurer, Elk Ridge Country Club, Atlanta, Mich.

- Elected directors: Robert Maibusch,

MG Hinsdale Golf Club, Clarendon Hills, Ill.; Tim O'Neill, Country Club of Darien, Darien, Conn.; Mark Woodward, Dobson Ranch/Review Golf Courses, Mesa, Ariz. Sean Hoolehan at the Wildhorse Golf Club in Mission, Ore. was appointed to serve a one year term on the board.

- The "Investing in the Beauty of Golf" endowment campaign has reached $4.5 million with a goal of $5 million (increased from the original $3.5 million target).

- Penn State University claimed the title at the seventh annual Collegiate Turf Bowl competition, beating out Iowa State (A), Iowa State (B) and Rhode Island. The winning team included

Dan Brickley, Bob Raley, Sean Jordan and Joe Maloney.

- Patricia Cobb, a retired turfgrass insect specialist, was awarded the 2001 USGA Green Section Award.

- GCSAA membership topped the 21,000 mark for the first time last fall. Membership growth from 1994 (13,000 members) has been 58 percent. The GCSAA's 73rd International Conference & Show is set for Feb. 4-10 in Orlando, Fla.

EVERGREEN™ The Turf Blanket the World Relies On

- Earlier spring green-up
- Faster seed germination
- Deeper root development
- Delays dormancy in fall
- Ideal winter blanket
- Best for quick turf repairs
- Available in any size
- 3 or 7 year warranty covers

CALL TOLL FREE
1-800-387-5808

COVERMASTER™
COVERMASTER
COVERMASTER
MASTERS IN THE ART OF SPORTS SURFACE COVERS

WEB: www.covermaster.com
E-MAIL: info@covermaster.com

COVERMASTER INC., REXDALE, ON, M9V 5C3 TEL 416-745-1811 FAX 416-742-6837