

GCI Live at GIE + Expo

At this year's GIE + Expo – the 16th largest tradeshow in North America – at the Kentucky Exposition Center in Louisville Oct. 23-24, Golf Course Industry will present GCI Live, a new education program for golf course superintendents.

The program includes a live, outdoor bunker renovation demonstration, technical presentations about fertilizer applications and water management, and business management presentations about career development and communications. GCI columnists Jim McLoughlin, Tim Moraghan and Pat Jones will be a few of speakers. The event also features outdoor product demos, a new products showcase and a reception October 23 at 4:30 p.m. Preregistration for GCI Live is required. Additionally, attendees can register to win $20,000 toward a new truck. Visit www.gie-expo.com, or call 800-558-8767.

Correction

In the July issue in the Smart Irrigation supplement on page S25, the amendment Hydretain was misspelled. Visit www.hydretain.com for more information.
