

IN THIS ISSUE

10

COVER STORY

10 SAY WHAT?

Ever feel like the other guy is speaking a foreign language? GCI's Bob Lohmann and Dennis Lyon take a stab at dissecting what GMs and superintendents are really trying to say to each other.

FEATURES

Industry profile

16 BATTLE SCARS

Fred Leonard fought courageously for Taberna Country Club's survival. No matter what, no one was going to take his course away from him.

Course profile

22 RIVER WILD

The Red River's scenic ambience comes at a price. Fargo Country Club's Aaron has tried to tame the river and preserve his course.

Course maintenance

30 HOW THE RAIN DRAINS

As precipitation leads to lasting puddles, courses seek drainage solutions.

DEPARTMENTS

4 Teeing off
Mike Zawacki:
Your new role

6 The Whiteboard

56 Classifieds

57 Ad index

50

34 Travels with Terry TERRY'S REAL GENIUSES

Terry's traveled the world seeking out innovative course creations. Here are his Top 10.

40 Personal development GIVING MANAGEMENT COMPANIES A FAIR SHAKE

A lot of myths surround working for management companies. GCI's Bruce Williams examines a few and you might be surprised by his findings.

46 Industry trends NICE PACKAGE

Improvements in packaging have made the handling of turf chemicals safer and easier.

50 Pest control OPERATION SCARECROW

The team at Oakfield Golf Club mounts a multi-prong attack to deal with its goose problems.

53 Product spotlight GETTING THE DRIFT

When it comes to being precise with an application, the right nozzle makes all the difference.

COLUMNS

14 Outside the ropes
Tim Moraghan:
Fall: The fickle season

20 Design concepts
Jeffrey D. Brauer:
A tough year in Texas

28 Irrigation
Brian Vinchesi:
Terminal velocity

38 Game plan
Henry DeLozier
Five projection points to ponder

44 The Monroe Doctrine
Monroe Miller
Not that much has changed

58 Parting shots
Pat Jones:
Stephen's journey

