

COVER STORY

14 SUPER SOLUTIONS

New "plant health" benefits are popping up on more product labels. GCI finds the new formula behind the trend.

FEATURES

Personal development

20 PINK SLIP BLUES

Without a doubt, it's going to happen someday. GCI's Bruce Williams tells you how to prepare for your last day on the job.

Turf maintenance

42 COOLING OFF FOR FALL

Fall is the perfect time to tweak maintenance practices and tweak your turf before winter sets in.

Tree care

50 TREES BRING GREEN... IN MORE WAYS THAN ONE

To find a balance between trees and turf on a golf course and maintain sustainability and budgetary goals, superintendents need to think like urban foresters.

IN THIS ISSUE

DEPARTMENTS

- 6 Teeing off
Pat Jones:
Spooky
- 8 Letters
- 10 The Whiteboard
- 63 Travels with Terry
Equipment ideas
- 64 Classifieds
- 65 Ad index

COLUMNS

- 12 Game plan
Henry DeLozier
Ready for the restart
- 18 Sage advice
Dennis Lyon
The black swans
have landed
- 26 Design concepts
Jeffrey D. Brauer:
Phil's fodder
- 48 Outside the ropes
Tim Moraghan:
My thoughts on
Tee It Forward
- 56 Irrigation
Brian Vinchesi:
A night out
- 66 Parting shots
Pat Jones:
Bone dry

- Product spotlight*
- 58 BATTLING SNOW MOLD
To combat snow mold resistance, superintendent Bill Stein investigates alternatives to his course's traditional treatment.

- Real science*
- 60 BUFFER STRIPS, RUNOFF, AND LEACHATE
Research compares nutrient loading in runoff and leachate when buffer strips are used alongside golf course fairways.

26