NEW PUTTING PRACTICE RUG CAPTURES FANCY OF NUTS

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Thermwool Mfg. Co. is making a new practice putting surface that is inexpensive, durable and closely approximates the putting speed of a good green. The device sells for $12.50 with a good margin in it for the pro.

One of them was in GOLFDOM'S office for a while but killed too much time for the help and the visitors. So one of the smart boys took it home where it is by no means a fiscal asset to one whose guests are proficient putters. This demonstrates the surface putts like a real green.
