

19. Caddies should not go in bunkers or on top of mounds in bunkers.

20. Your most important duty as a caddie is to know where the ball is every time, and beat the player to it.

21. Caddies should keep ball clean, and if it goes in rough it will be easy to find.

22. Caddies should not enter club grounds before 8 A. M. unless asked to do so by caddie master, and caddies should be off club grounds by dark.

23. No caddie can be engaged to any player only during tournament play.

24. No caddie will be assigned to any player nor reserved for him until player has entered club grounds, and has applied in person to caddie-master for a caddie.

25. No attention will be paid to request for caddies over telephone.

These rules must be obeyed.

TOM O'HARA,
Head Caddie-Master,
Denver Country Club.

Whether This Golfer Does Dishes Depends on Pryor

THE heat is on Bob Pryor, Dunlop's adv. mgr. Applying the heat is Leslie E. Fenster, a member of Crystal Springs GC, Burlingame, Calif., where Everett Goulart is pro.

Goulart spread the word of the Dunlop "Break 100-90-80" certificates as inducements to improve go'fers' performances. It worked on the Fensters as it has on thousands of other pros' members.

Mrs. F. was playing around 120; Mr. F. in the low 80s with a rare break into the 70s. Mrs. F. swore she was going to get a "Break 100" certificate. Her spouse made the mistake of saying he would get a certificate for breaking 70 quicker than she'd get one for breaking 100. The bet was that Pa would cook breakfast and do the dishes for a year if Ma won. The Fensters began playing a lot of golf and taking plenty of lessons from Ev Goulart.

The letter in which Mr. F. tells of the campaigns is one of the most amusing chronicles of golf. When he was driving, an automobile accident resulted in Mrs. F. getting a broken shoulder, which she felt was unfair tactics.

Mr. F. by a miracle broke 70. Then he learned Dunlop has no "Break 70" certificate. If he doesn't get a certificate for his feat before Mrs. F. gets hers when she breaks 100 Pryor will be out of luck for the success of his golf-improvement reward idea. It looks like Bob will be stuck for the cost of a special certificate to be sent to Mr. Fenster.

Tam O'Shanter Club Prepares for $11,000 Event

PREPARATIONS are nearing completion for the $11,000 Tam O'Shanter Open to be held September 4-7 at the Tam O'Shanter club in the Chicago district. The tournament is being staged with the cooperation of the PGA, the Chicago Assn. of Commerce, and the Chicago District G.A.

The $11,000 purse, incidentally, is the largest offered in the country this year; the first place winner will draw a neat $2,000, $1,400 will go to the second spot, and an even $1,000 is in the pot for the third man. From there, the cash awards range on down to $50 for 30th place. Another $400 will be paid out in prizes to the low scorers in each 18-hole round, and an additional $200 will be split among the three lowest scorers in the qualifying round.

George S. May, president of the Tam O'Shanter CC, is the 'man behind the Open,' and assisting him is a group of enthusiastic club members headed by Harry G. Daumit, general chairman, Harry A. Rheiner, Albert J. Smith, P. F. Lowder, Matt E. Niesen, Edmund G. Weichmann, George Mallory, Claude C. Crandall and Pro William C. Gordon.

In spite of the large purse, the tournament will be offered to the public at one of the lowest admission prices ever charged for a major golf event. Tickets good for admission all four days have been priced at $3.00 while daily tickets will sell at $1.00. This dollar price holds good for the Sunday finals as well and, since the tournament is a benefit (all profits from the event are to be divided equally between the Chicago chapter of USO and the British War Relief Society), there is no tax to be added on.

Entries close August 20, and the qualifying round has been set for Tuesday, September 2. Entry fees, which are $11, should be filed at the club, Niles, Ill., on or before August 20.
