

An indoor golf school that was a standout from every angle was conducted in St. Louis this past winter by E. H. Duwe, pro at Forest Park GC, and Homer Herpel, Crystal Lake GC pro. The school was beautifully appointed for both men and women, with unusually attractive private teaching quarters. The school had ground floor space (at 4535 Delmar Blvd., St. Louis), thereby permitting passersby a 'look-see' at the activities.

"Of course is was inevitable that in the period under review there were times when a larger staff would have eliminated some criticism of lack of service. Some things which might have been done had to be omitted. Some suggestions involving expenditure of funds or loss of revenue could not be carried out. Someone had to attach a price tag to all new ideas and plug away 365 days of the year on the basis of 'what we could do without' and not 'what we could do with.' Nobody enjoys economy but everybody enjoys the results of it."

fitted to your individual requirements by an expert who knows your game, and a prompt adjustment if anything goes wrong with your purchase. Also give him the benefit of any golf lessons you may decide to take—he is a competent instructor and his charges are reasonable. Let's give him a fair chance at our golf business—he really deserves it.

Very truly yours,
Rock Spring CC, Alton, Ill.

P. S. The above was composed and submitted by a club member with the suggestion that it be sent to each member of the club. Dozens of club members would be glad to have it sent over their signatures; therefore, we feel justified in sending it to you as a recommendation of members of the Board and Committees of the club.

WM. MACKIE, pro at Daniel Guggenheim's private course at Sands Point, L. I., died April 18 at Nassau hospital, Mineola, L. I., following a 2-week illness.

Mr. Mackie is survived by three brothers who are prominent in pro golf; Jack, Dan and Isaac. As a boy in Scotland, Mr. Mackie learned his golf. He came to the U. S. in 1916 and was pro to the late Isaac Guggenheim at Carola Farms, prior to designing and constructing the Daniel Guggenheim course.

His widow, two daughters, and a son also survive this estimable gentleman, whose fine character and conscientious service set a high standard in pro golf.

TRACTOR SAND TRAP RAKE

Here is a new tool that saves hundreds of dollars per year over hand raking. It is the long sought answer to speed and economy in trap upkeep. Will do a perfect job of raking hard sand and will loosen to a depth of 4 inches.

Three 40-inch double-row rakes lifted from the driver's seat. Transported on pneumatic-tired frame; can be attached to any tractor.
