raiser, the enlisted men without paying entry fees.

Pvt. Ben Hogan won the Victory Open with 138. Jimmy Gaunt won the Texas PGA title with his 141 and Harry Todd was low amateur with 141. The pros won the annual Texas Cup match from the amateurs, 8-7. A picked team of Dallas amateur stars, captained by David "Spec" Goldman, led Texas U. and Louisiana State U. teams in a match preceding the Victory tournament.

SOUTHERN California PGA directors have voted not to sponsor or approve golf matches other than those completely and directly contributing to war effort. Furthermore the section went on record against benefit matches involving the use of automobiles "to any extent" and required that all prizes be in war bonds or stamps.

The sunkist section is going strong for benefit matches in which the proceeds go directly to some urgently needed servicemen's requirements. An exhibition played by Olin Dutra, Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, and Coast Guardsman Jimmy Thomson, at Long Beach, raised $1,000.72 for rehabilitation of the course at the Naval Hospital at Corona. At Saticoy CC, Oxnard, pros, movie stars and other amateurs played in a servicemen's benefit match arranged by Maury Luxford and Neil Whitney, raising $2,200.

One of the features of the Southern California wartime golf exhibition program lately was a five-man Navy team headed by Sam Snead playing against a five-man Coast Guard team headed by Jimmy Thomson as a servicemen's benefit. Sailor Sam poured in a 66 against Guardsman Thomson's 69 over a tough par-72 course.

"Golf Sure to Have Post-War Boom": Aulbach

THE Civil War made baseball the national game of the U. S. Soldiers recreation in this global war is laying the foundation for a tremendous postwar increase in golf.

George Aulbach, mgr-pro of Amarillo (Tex.) CC, in his exceedingly interesting monthly "Golf Marches On" bulletin, gives some slants on what's going on in this golf development. Writes George:

"After a careful survey of play in the southwest, I can now report that practically all municipal and fee courses are
