supt. at Merion GC and other greenkeepers planned and are supervising the construction work which is being done by soldiers at the hospital assisted by the course superintendents.

Holes of the nine-hole course vary from 95 to 275 in length and have been expertly designed by Philadelphia pros. The course is located in wooded, rolling terrain through which a stream runs.

Quaker City PGA members plan other events to finance equipment for the course. These also are going to give group instruction and exhibition matches at the course when it is ready for play in spring, 1944.

WHAT'S NEW

Crawford, MacGregor, Canby Co., Dayton, Ohio, manufacturers of MacGregor golf equipment, and Sport Products, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio, jointly sponsored the nation-wide play-by-play NBC broadcast of the College All-Stars and Washington Redskins football game in Chicago August 25th. The game was handled by Bill Stern. Following the broadcast a brief resume was short-waved to our armed forces throughout the world. This was the second broadcast of a sports event of a national interest which the MacGregor company has sponsored this season. The previous event was the Ryder Cup golf matches played in Detroit August 8th which Craig Wood's Ryder Cup squad won over Walter Hagen's challengers.

Sudbury Laboratory, South Sudbury, Mass., makers of soil test kits extensively used by golf clubs, recently received an order for 27,000 of the kits.
